

SANDALWOOD OIL FACTORY, BANGALORE.

Notification dated 24th June 1930.

It is hereby notified for general information that the unserviceable articles lying in the Stores of the Sandalwood Oil Factory, Bangalore, will be sold by public auction in the premises of the Factory on Monday 27th April 1931 at 9 A.M., by the Director or by a Gazetted Officer, deputed by him for the purpose, subject to the following conditions:—

(1) The highest bidder shall ordinarily be the purchaser: but the Director reserves to himself the right to accept or reject the highest bid for any article if, in his opinion, the price realised is inadequate.

(2) Immediately after the lot is knocked down to him, the successful bidder shall sign his name opposite the number and specification of the lot bought by him in a book provided for the purpose. Such signature shall be held as admission on his part of having bought such lot and of having accepted the terms of the sale as herein specified.

(3) After the conclusion of the sale, each purchaser shall pay 25 per cent of the amount in cash to the Officer conducting the sale and obtain in return from him a receipt vouching for the payment.

In case of default of this deposit by the successful bidder, the lots will be resold at the risk of the bidder, who shall be held liable to make good the loss caused by such resale of the lots.

(4) No article would be permitted to be removed until the balance of the amount has been paid.

(5) All articles purchased will be at the risk of the purchaser who should remove them within a fortnight from the date of sale, failing which the 25 per cent deposit will be forfeited to Government and the articles resold.
